LECTURES AND EQUIPMENT

Each lecture is allotted 20–30 minutes. The recommended size of the poster is A0, but you can also use any other format. The conference hall will be equipped with a computer, a video beam, an over-head projector, and a blackboard.

ABSTRACTS AND PROCEEDINGS

Abstracts (up to two pages) will be published prior to the conference and distributed among the participants on registration. It is also planned to issue the refereed proceedings of the conference which will be submitted for indexing to Scopus. For preparation of the papers, Latex and Word templates are available at the conference website. The length of a paper is limited to 10 pages. The deadline for sending papers is 31 May 2019. Extended versions of the selected conference papers will be recommended for publication in the journals Regular and Chaotic Dynamics and Russian Journal of Nonlinear Dynamics.

TRAVEL

The Chuvash State University is situated in the town of Cheboksary, which is a green and quiet city in the center of the European part of Russia, at the bank of the great Russian river Volga. You can get to Cheboksary by airplane, train or by bus. The most preferable transit routes are through Moscow and Kazan. Every day there are 2 flights from Moscow to Cheboksary. Also, a transfer from Kazan can be organized at your request (the distance between Kazan and Cheboksary is 160 km). If you have any questions concerning travelling, please do not hesitate to contact the Organizing Committee.

VENUE

The conference will be held in the main university building of the Chuvash State University, which is situated on Moskovsky Prospekt 15.

REGISTRATION FEE

The registration fee is 2000 rubles, for undergraduate and postgraduate students — 1000 rubles. It covers the cost of the conference materials, refreshments and the social program. To pay the registration fee, you can use one of the following methods of payment:

- bank transfer (the payment details are available at the conference website). After payment, please send the confirmation of the bank transfer to the address chapconf@yandex.ru;
- payment in cash on arrival at the conference at the registration desk.

ACCOMMODATION

The Organizing Committee will readily book accommodation at the city hotels for the participants in the conference. For this purpose, please send to the address eg-fmf@mail.ru information on the duration of your stay and special wishes (if any). For guests who will be accommodated at places somewhat remote from the venue of the conference, transfers will be organized on a daily basis to the venue of the conference and back.

CURRENCY AND PAYMENT

The only currency in official use in Russia is Russian rouble. The exchange rates fluctuate and are approximately 1 euro = 75 roubles, 1 usd = 65 roubles. Visa, Mastercard and other cards are accepted for payment almost everywhere. There are also currency exchange offices, where one can draw money / exchange cash currency for roubles.

WEATHER AND CLOTHING

In early June the weather in the area of Cheboksary is usually pleasantly warm and sunny, with fresh evenings and occasional rains. Since some excursions are scheduled, take care to bring comfortable clothes and shoes suitable for walking.
